

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and buried. He descended into Hell. The third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy universal Church; the Communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

June 8 Consistory Update:

Last week on June 8, Consistory met with Seth Sundstrom from Dakota Network to discuss why we are a church here in Yankton and our future as a church. For our devotion, we considered Exodus 14:5-14, where we looked at the journey of Israel out of Egypt in the face of an Egyptian Army that was threatening them with death. We reflected on various aspects of the passage like the hardening of Pharaoh's heart, the fear and anxiety that Israel was probably feeling, the slavery of Israel and wanting to go back of it in the face of death, the struggle of faith in the future God had for Israel. We reflected on how this connected with our church's present as we wrestle with the future of our church, how for awhile years, we have heard frustration, fear, anxiety, sadness, discouragement, wondering if our church is dying which has often led us to look back to when we saw life in the church and how we struggle to see life in our church's future. We discussed the lifecycle of a church, what we want from church vs. what is a true Christian church, and the why, what and how's of Riverview Reformed Church. AS we look to the promises of life God has for us going forward, we discussed the need for testimony in our church to how God has been at work and is at work in our lives, the need for discipleship opportunities for all the groups in our church like introverts for example and the need to continue to point to being committed to Jesus.

Each week, find a new scripture verse...take it home, memorize it, contemplate it.
Each week we'll try to print a new verse to reflect on thru the week..

Scripture for the week:

Psalm 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people he chose for his inheritance

REQUEST from the Counseling Center Counselor If you are in the church building in the late afternoon or evening, and the lights are still on in the foyer, or down the south hallway, and you can hear the white noise sound machine on, the Counselor is still in session with a client. PLEASE do NOT turn off hallway/foyer lights, as she will turn them off and she will be sure the doors are locked when she is done with her clients. On occasion, she has come out of session with a client to a dark hallway, and they need to find the lights again. Counseling Center hours vary from day to day, but if the hallway lights are on, or the sound machine is on, she is still in session, or in the building, and she will turn off lights and lock up when counseling is done. THANK YOU!
